Articles by Sarah Voss on Math & Religion

“Ruminations on the Ubiquity of Movement” June 11, 2002, is an article about presence as a characteristic of reality, published by The Global Spiral, an e-publication of Metanexus Institute

Earlier work related to the teaching of mathematics appeared in the Mathematics Teacher, the Nebraska English Teacher, and Education. 